RISK VERSUS RETURN

Our primary objective is to provide excess returns with less risk than the benchmark and our peers. We define and measure portfolio risk as the standard deviation of return relative to the benchmark. We measure, monitor, and compare this risk/reward relationship to similar managers, as detailed in the chart on the right.

RISK MANAGEMENT

Understanding that there are many risks inherent in fixed income investing, we use a multi-tiered approach toward managing interest rate risk, credit risk, early redemption risk, and liquidity risk. Interest rate risk is managed by closely aligning our portfolios with their market benchmarks in order to neutralize effects of the changing interest rate climate. Rigorous fundamental analysis and the use of independent credit services allows us to effectively assess and subsequently manage credit risk. Sophisticated analytics enable us to capture and understand possible future scenarios that may impact the risk of early redemptions. Finally, in an effort to remain mindful of liquidity challenges, all purchases are made with a watchful eye toward the ability to sell the bond in the future, if needed.

The Short Term Fixed Income Composite includes all institutional, discretionary, fee paying, tax-exempt total return portfolios of taxable bonds with portfolio durations and security guidelines that are similar to the composite's benchmark, the Bloomberg Barclays Capital 1-3 Year Government/Credit Index. Portfolios subject to substantial client imposed restrictions are excluded from the composite. Beginning on June 30, 2012, the minimum portfolio size for inclusion in Short Term Fixed Income Composite is $2 million USD. Accounts are added to the composite when their duration is similar to that of the Bloomberg Barclays Capital 1-3 Year Government/Credit Index. Accounts are removed from the composite prospectively, while retaining their prior historical performance in the composite, at termination of the Firm as investment manager, when there is a change in the benchmark, when the value of the account drops below $1 million for a period of nine consecutive months, or when investment policy guidelines are instituted substantially restricting implementation of the Short Term Fixed Income Composite strategy. Accounts within this composite do not employ leverage. The composite inception date and creation date was June 30, 1999. All cash reserves and equivalents are included in returns. Returns are time weighted and include reinvestment of dividends, income and gains. The value of assets and returns is expressed in U.S. dollars. Market commentary is available at www.greatlakesadvisors.com or upon request.

The benchmark selected for comparison of returns for the Short-Term Fixed Income Composite is the Bloomberg Barclays Capital 1-3 year Government/Credit, an unmanaged index considered representative of performance of short-term investment-grade U.S. corporate and government bonds with maturities from one to three years. For comparison purposes, each index is fully invested, which includes the reinvestment of income. The returns for the index do not include any transaction costs, management fees or other costs. The index is not available for direct investment.
